

The difference between stress, and pressure, is

Move From Stress To Pressure.

Description

Do you know the difference between Stress and Pressure? Knowledge.

As the leader of your company, you are responsible for so many moving parts. This can lead some CEOs and business owners to live in stress. However, if you take the time to look at the facts and make a plan, you can move from a place of stress and into a feeling of the pressure to succeed.

Watch this video and see what I'm talking about.

Stress is Bad. Pressure is Good. Get more Knowledge.
